TOKYO - HULL

Tokyo Hull is a traditional high street club venue residing in a spectacular grade II listed building that was previously utilised as both a ballroom and a cinema. Launched to critical acclaim following appearances from chart topping acts Example & Professor Green, the venue attracts a following from the locals and the 30,000 plus student population. Whilst still in its infancy, the venue shows early signs of delivering a consistent weekly profit.

Great building with good size capacity and an impressive sound system (a strong USP as customers have become more technically savvy).

SOUTH - MANCHESTER

Famed for his hazard-striped columns of the Hacienda, Dry Bar and Fac251, designer Ben Kelly returned to Manchester to undertake the re-design of South. With a brief to modernise the space whilst retaining the underground dive-bar feel, new additions include a bespoke Funktion One sound system featuring a "body sonic infrabass" dancefloor system.

"It looks more like a sonic assault weapon – something you'd invade countries with rather than drop in a micro basement club," comments Tokyo Industries managing director Aaron Mellor.

Within the centre of the Victorian building a new secret courtyard has been transformed into a Lower Manhattan outdoor cinema space, complete with its own bar screening cult artists such as Velvet Underground, Nico & the Stones, taking inspiration from Factory, but this time Andy Warhol's Factory, not Tony Wilson's.

GET BAKED - LEEDS

Get Baked has been plying the hungry Leeds folk with gourmet quality burgers and imported treats and sweets for the past decade. It's now moved to its permanent home as an 'anti-restaurant' and late night bar in the amazing and unique former St David's Church on Woodhouse Lane, city centre Leeds.

The interior has stayed faithful to the original space, with lighting and colours reflecting the huge stained glass window which towers over the bar. There's an iron work industrial mezzanine level for extra seating capacity or as a separate event space. All the nooks and crannies have also been explored for tiny dens /chill or hide away places.

Throughout the walls are covered in 90's pop art and murals of familiar faces and idols from the era accented by red neon lighting whilst the laid back functional furniture complements the overall look.

It's all about the Junk food, proper Junk food.

FESTIVALS AND OUTDOOR EVENTS

We programme and are responsible for the marketing of EVOLUTION FESTIVAL which this year attracted in excess of 60,000 attendee's.

We also utilise Times Square, the area outside Digital, for Outdoor Events + Concerts up to 6,000 capacity.

This work enhances our already excellent reputation with International Booking Agents and enables us to secure talent bookings for our venues over and above that which would normally be offered.

HACIENDA XXX - 30TH ANNIVERSARY - MANCHESTER

The Hacienda takes over The Hacienda Apartments Car Park for a special event with an full installation of light, sound and music which will feature a line up of famous Hacienda residents and surprise guests which will only be revealed at the party itself.

Taking place right below the original club dancefloor, in aid of the Nordoff Robbins music charity, and limited to some 500 guests, a one-off, spectacular event to reflect thirty years of FAC 51 and with a gallery of FAC 51 faces past and present attending the event, also streamed online for those who were unable to attend or gain tickets.

MODA WAREHOUSE - VARIOUS LOCATIONS

Our nomadic warehouse parties: Kicking off with 800 trusting followers in May 2012, each successive warehouse party has attracted a bigger crowd than the last. Now pulling in 2000 strong crowds from all over the UK, these parties have become unmissable - as our next instalment proves more than ever. Musical pioneers like Skream and DJ's who do it like Darius Syrossian simultaneously send new school fans into a frenzy, is something to behold. Raw energy. Home grown talent like Patrick Topping who scooped awards for 'Best New DJ' and 'Best Track of Ibiza 2014' he has quickly become the hottest of hot property and plays for Moda regularly. One of the most talked about artists on Hot Creations, his twisted take on house music is paralleled only by his immense DJ sets - which landed him in the hallowed Resident Advisor Top 100.

Gluing it all together are the masterminds behind Moda Black & Lost Village will, of course, be Jaymo & Andy George. Whether they're throwing groundbreaking parties, collaborating with artists such as Sidney Charles or running one of the UK's hottest labels, their passion for electronic music means these boys never stop..

LOST VILLAGE FESTIVAL - LINCOLNSHIRE

Long since concealed from the outside world, the Lost Village has been a source of suspicion and rumour for generations. From apparitions in the skies above its rustling treetops, to the misplaced souls that wonder it's leafy corridors, plucked from the sands of time itself. So, if you think you're ready, take the road past the old fishing lake, towards the water tower. Ahead you'll see a rusty gate, nestled amongst the darkened bushes, and a sign that reads 'Keep Out!'. Beyond that gate is where you need to go, for beyond that gate is the forest of the Lost Village.

Once inside we can no longer promise your fate. Amongst the derelict buildings and winding pathways, you will encounter all manner of unusual characters. Speak to them, hear their stories, join their journey. A kaleidoscopic dreamscape of sights, sounds, secret hideaways, banquets of fine food and rituals of the weird and wonderful all await those who dare to enter this mysterious place. The gateway opens but once a year... Assemble your tribe, the Lost Village awaits
